1. Purpose

This policy sets the standards Kestrel Valley Credit Union (KVCU) follows to comply with Bank Secrecy Act / Anti-Money Laundering, Unfair, Deceptive, or Abusive Acts or Practices and to treat members fairly.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, volunteers and third parties who handle accounts of older and vulnerable members on behalf of KVCU, at every branch and in digital channels.

3. Definitions

Business day means any day KVCU is open to the public for substantially all business, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and federal holidays. Member means any person with a share account at KVCU.

4. Policy Statement

KVCU will train staff to recognize red flags of elder financial exploitation, escalate concerns to the BSA Officer, and report to Adult Protective Services when required. Management will maintain written procedures that put this policy into practice and will review them at least annually.

Procedures supporting this section are listed in Appendix A of the procedures manual. Procedures supporting this section are listed in Appendix A of the procedures manual. Procedures supporting this section are listed in Appendix A of the procedures manual.

5. Roles and Responsibilities

The Chief Compliance Officer owns this policy. Department managers make sure staff are trained. Compliance tests adherence at least once per year and reports results to the Supervisory Committee.

6. Monitoring and Reporting

Exceptions are logged in the GRC system within five business days of discovery. Trends are reported to the Board quarterly.

7. Training

Affected staff complete training within 30 days of hire and annually after that. Completion is tracked in the learning system.

8. Record Retention

Records related to this policy are kept for at least 5 years, or longer if a legal hold applies.

9. Exceptions

Exceptions to this policy require written approval from the Chief Compliance Officer and the Chief Compliance Officer.
